

Requirements for a Minor in Religious Studies

In order to complete a minor in Religious Studies, each student must fulfill the following requirements:

1. The completion of a minimum of five graded courses (15 credits) within the Department of Religious Studies.
2. Take two courses (6 credits) in one of the world's major religious traditions as a primary concentration: African religions (RELA), Buddhism (RELB), Christianity (RELC), Hinduism (RELH), Islam (RELI) or Judaism (RELJ).
 - RELG 1010 may be counted toward a concentration in Christianity, Islam or Judaism.
 - RELG 1040 may be counted toward a concentration in Buddhism or Hinduism.
3. At least one of the five required courses (3 credits) must be taken at the 3000 level, or above.
4. A grade of C (2.0) or above must be achieved in each course offered for the completion of the Religious Studies minor.

Applications must be filled out in duplicate in consultation with a departmental faculty member.

Please complete two copies of this form. Leave one copy in the departmental office. Take the other to the Registrar of your school, (Monroe Hall if you are in the CLAS, Thornton Hall if you are in Engineering, McLeod if you are in Nursing, etc.) so that it may be recorded on the undergraduate transcript.
